Superintendent's Corner

Chuck Hughes, Superintendent

The 2018-19 school year has been amazing! Our students have shined in so many ways. If you are not following hartlandschools on Twitter or Facebook to learn about these amazing accomplishments, please think about following us. You can also follow us at www.hartlandliving.com just scroll down to the link.

Future Bond Proposal:

In the January issue of Community Life, I shared that the district is currently assessing our future technology, facility and transportation needs in an attempt to put together a bond proposal for May 2020. At this point in the process, we are working with construction and technology consultants, as well as architects to help us develop this proposal of needs. As the process moves forward, I will share our thinking with the Board of Education and community stakeholders in an effort to refine the proposal before putting it before voters. The goal is to address these needs within a fiscally responsible framework. The hard work is in prioritizing our needs over the "wants" that have come out of the process. Please look for future information on our social media websites, as well as in future issues of this publication.

Class of 2019:

Please consider attending the Class of 2019 High School Graduation Ceremony on Friday, June 7, 2019 at the Eastern Michigan University Convocation Center. The ceremony starts at 7 PM. This ceremony is a testament to the hard work and guidance that parents, family, school staff and the community have put into preparing our seniors for their post high school endeavors. It is a shining moment that represents all of our dreams and hopes for these graduates.

Thank You:

I want to thank the entire Hartland Consolidated School District team for all of the effort you have put into taking care of our students this year. You have fed, transported, educated, coached, comforted, guided and modeled what it means to have empathy, strive for achievement, persevere and show grit, linked learning, empowered our students to self-assess and shared the importance of serving the community. You continue to embrace our 3R's of Reason, Respect and Responsibility, and work hard to simply model right from wrong. It is an honor to be the superintendent in such a caring community.

To better align with school starting on August 21, 2019, we will produce our Back-To-School Issue of Community Life for August and it will be mailed on July 24th. Our last issue, May, will be mailed on April 22, 2020.

May 2019 Person of the Month: Steve Livingway

I am the principal at Hartland Middle School, completing my 24th year in Hartland. I have an MA in Educational Leadership from Eastern Michigan University, a BA in English and Teaching Certificate from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, a Secondary Teaching Certificate in English and Social Studies and an Administrator Certificate.

I taught in Redford Union Schools and was an assistant principal there before coming to Hartland. When I left Redford Union and came to Hartland, I told my colleagues back in RU that I was now in Mayberry. They could not believe that we actually gave detentions for chewing gum! I was hired in Hartland in August 1995 and am now completing my 31st year in education.

I have been married to the love of my life, Jodie, for 31 years this June. I have two grown sons, Sam, 27, and Danny, 22. We have lived in Howell since 1995 and have loved being in Livingston County. I have grown to look forward to running into parents, students and former students wherever I am, and I pride myself in always remembering (or at least pretending to remember) their names! I love to read and watch movies and my favorite thing to do is spend time with my family playing games.

One of my favorite memories is my first year in Hartland working as an assistant principal at Farms Middle School (then grades 6, 7 and 8) with Principal Jan Sifferman. I learned so much about being a compassionate yet firm administrator, and truly caring about my students, staff and school. I also quickly learned how important it is to laugh and have a sense of humor, no matter what you might be facing. Another favorite memory is being at a conference with a group of teachers and meeting up with then high school principal Chuck Hughes and some of his staff. After the day of conferences, we had such a good time just getting to talk with each other. We all laughed until tears were streaming from our eyes!

I honestly have never once looked anywhere else during my entire career in Hartland. I am here because I love the people. I know that Hartland is special, and I know I have been fortunate to have had a long career in a place that I love. I absolutely love Hartland Middle School at Ore Creek. I am proud to be the HMS principal for so long. The school is such an important and long-standing part of my life that my wife calls HMS my "third child."

I love that in Hartland we truly care about our students and each other. Whenever my students go on a field trip, participate in an assembly, or have a guest speaker, I am reminded by those outside of Hartland that our students are the best and most respectful students around. Whenever anyone in our community is struggling, or needs help, I am reminded of the generosity and commitment to each other all around us. I love working with a faculty and staff that care about kids, want to collaborate, work hard and want to give our students the absolute best that we can—not just academically, but in every area. Whenever we face a challenge together, I am reminded how fabulous my teachers and staff really are.

Paul Scheidler: 2019 Memorial Day Parade Grand Marshall

Basic Training, Fort Benning, Ga., 1982

The Hartland Community Council is proud to introduce Paul Scheidler as the 2019 Grand Marshall of the Hartland Memorial Day Parade. Considering that Paul has taught at Hartland High School since 1994, after student teaching at HHS in 1991, and then teaching at Legacy for 2 years, he would not need introducing to the 7,000 plus Hartland alumni that he had in class through the years.

Paul has taught a variety of history classes at Hartland High School. He has recently been particularly interested in the local history of Hartland and Livingston County. He has regularly over the last number of years had students participate in the Sunday before Memorial Day ceremony at the Hartland Cemetery. After students research various families buried in the cemetery, they tell the history of the family, including one or two of the family members. The students dress in time appropriate apparel to make the presentation even more authentic. If you have not attended this event in past years, you should definitely consider making it part of your Memorial Day weekend plans. It begins at 7 PM on May 26th at the Hartland Cemetery.

Within the past year, Paul was honored with an award for the Michigan Council for History Education/Grand Valley State University. This award honors the best elementary, high school and pre-service level teachers throughout Michigan. Paul presented a lesson to those in attendance offering a glimpse into his classroom. The previous summer, Paul was given a box of World War I letters, photos and other memorabilia that was found in the attic of a relative of another history teacher at the school. Paul, along with his history seminar students, spent the semester researching the artifacts and the battles that took place at that point in history. The class then presented their findings to the descendants of that soldier. The students successfully mapped out the movement and job assignments during the war for that soldier, including what events lead to him eventually settle in Michigan.

In addition to his distinguished teaching career, Paul has served in the military. Paul served in the US Army from 1982-1984, stationed in West Germany, 3rd Armored "Spearhead" Division. He joined the Army Reserves in 1984, serving with the 70th Training Division in Livonia, Michigan. He had two tours of duty overseas. The first was in Bosnia in 2003-2004. And from 2008-2009 he served in Iraq as a combat adviser.

The entire Hartland community thank Paul Scheidler not only for his military service, but his continued service to the students at Hartland High School. His is a fine role model to the young people he sees everyday of the school year. Congratulation to Paul Scheidler!

Hartland Optimist Youth Appreciation Awards Night

On March 19, 2019 the Hartland Optimist Club was fortunate to honor 133 children at our annual Youth Appreciation Awards Night. Students in Kindergarten through 12th grade were nominated by members of the community and school district, and were recognized for outstanding service and accomplishments including overcoming obstacles in their lives, supporting and assisting those with academic and social challenges, consistently being outstanding role models for others, achieving difficult goals and going above and beyond in situations that required their assistance.

The evening kicked off with a performance by some of the HHS drama students, who performed songs from their upcoming musical, The Music Man. Both the Youth and Adult Optimist Club members helped to make sure that the night ran smoothly. Each student received a framed award along with identification of the nominator and a copy of the nomination narrative, which was read at the event. We are so proud of these outstanding young people and appreciate the opportunity to recognize and celebrate them at this yearly Optimist Club event.

Optimist Club Co-Chairs, Mr. Scott Van Epps and Mrs. Lindsay Smither would like to thank everyone involved in making this year's Youth Appreciation Award Evening a huge success.

Please consider joining the Hartland Optimist Club today. It's a great way to support the success of Hartland students and families. Call President Ms. Vicki Schiesel for information at (313) 220-2797. Also, as we are a non-profit organization and rely on fundraisers and donations to support our many activities, we appreciate anyone that wishes to donate to our club. Donations can be made at www.paypal.me/optimists.

Did you know the Transportation office is open throughout the summer?

Just as one school year ends, Transportation begins working on the next. Our office is open and staff will be available to accept forms and answer any questions you may have throughout the summer.

Efficient routes are created based on current busing forms (School of Choice, Joint Custody, and Alternate Destination) and enrolled student addresses. All busing forms are destroyed at the end of each school year, and new forms are required annually by July 1st to be assured of a seat on the proper bus. As we cannot assume anything, every year your student will be assigned to your home address unless a new form is submitted. All forms can be found at www.hartlandschools.us/Departments/Transportation/Forms.

Busing forms are required for:

- Students who are using a stop other than their home stop for morning or afternoon, or both morning and afternoon (Alternate Destination form)
- School of Choice students (School of Choice form)
- Students whose parents live in separate homes within the district (Joint Custody form)

Postcards will be mailed home a week before school starts with each student's bus information. If you have any questions, please give our office a call.

High School News

Kate Gregory, Principal

 @hartlandhigh

Over Hartland High School's Spring Break, Mrs. Pam Iden took Hartland High School German classes on an international trip to Germany. The group experienced two excursions from Munich, including one to Dachau Concentration Camp used by Nazis during WWII and to Neuschwanstein Castle, which is the fairytale replicated castle used by Walt Disney. Students also met with Berlin high school students who gave them a tour of a typical day in German high school, and they were part of a discussion with residents who lived through the East Germany/West Germany divide, including the fall of the Berlin Wall. The trip was a wonderful experience for the HHS German students. Thank you Frau Iden for taking this fantastic trip with our students!

From the Guidance Office:

One of the misconceptions about 529 college savings plans is it takes a lot of money to open an account. While data shows most families who save in 529 accounts tend to be wealthier, there are still a lot of middle-class and lower-income families using the plans.

Experts say, the minimum contribution to open an account is lower than what it used to be. Michigan's prepaid 529 plan—Michigan Education Trust (MET)—now allows purchasers to buy in credit hour increments. The new Pay-As-You-Go option allows parents, grandparents and others to purchase a contract by paying for one credit hour to begin with and then make contributions as low as $25 a credit hour. The Michigan Education Savings Program (MESP) can be started with as little as $25. Both plans offer Michigan residents tax advantages.

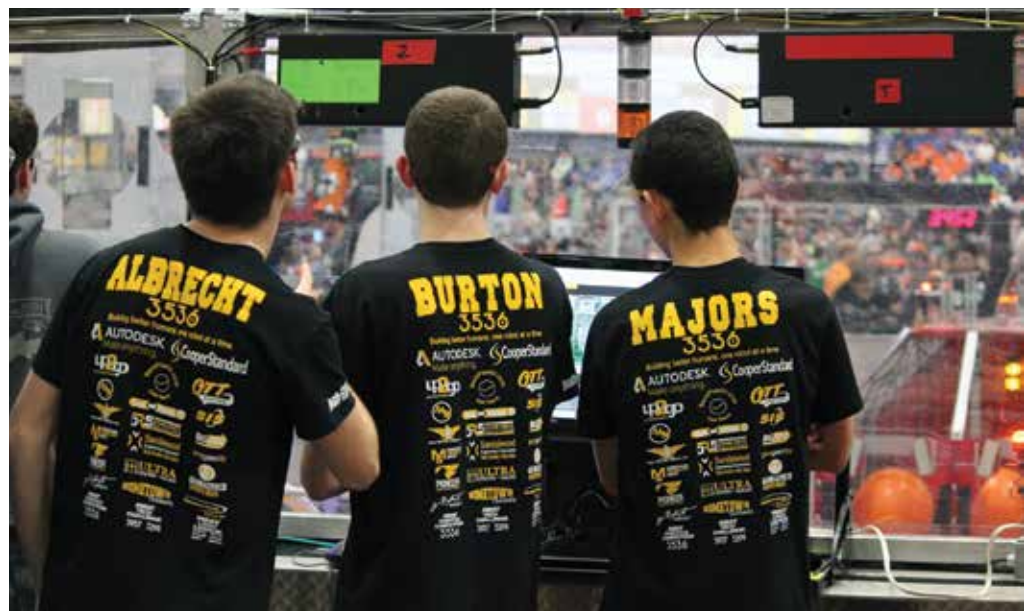

It is often recommended for purchasers to make recurring payments into the 529 account, but it is not required. Parents can use milestones as an opportunity to contribute—if you have a toddler who no longer needs diapers take a portion of that money and put it into college savings. Friends and relatives can also use holidays and birthdays as an opportunity to contribute.

Even saving a little for college is better than nothing. Every dollar saved is a dollar the student, or parent, isn't going to have to borrow later. According to a Washington Post article, Americans now owe a record $1.3 trillion in student loans. "Some 50 million people in the U.S. hold a student loan, slightly more than the number of people on Medicare and almost as many as those receiving Social Security benefits."

To find out more about MET visit www.SETwithMET.com. More information about MESP can be found at www.misaves.com.

Hartland Drama Club put on Meredith Wilson's The Music Man musical at Hartland High School. This year's cast and crew were amazing! The male lead character, Harold Hill, was played by Austin Bickel and the female lead character, Marian Paroo, was played by Cayenne Teeter. Congratulations to Ms. Mary Jo Del Vero and Mr. Scott Usher for spectacular directing and congratulations to the cast, crew, and all of the parent volunteers!

Great job to Hartland's Electro Eagles for making it to the finals in their division at the first Michigan State Robotics Championship. Their scores placed them high enough to earn a spot to compete at the World Tournament in Detroit! Congratulations to the Robotics Team and good luck at Worlds!

The Round Round Up

We have had a tremendous school year so far at Round Elementary. Spring always brings a lot of excitement and many great activities. The Round PTO sponsored the annual auction with a twist.

Attendees enjoyed watching Round Students perform. Round students shared many talents and audience participation and support was overwhelming. We are so very fortunate to live and work in this community. In addition, guests won many exciting prizes, classroom baskets, and had an opportunity to bid on dozens of amazing silent auction items. It was a night of great camaraderie for the Round School Family.

We would like to thank the many sponsors that donated items for the auction and to the PTO for organizing this memorable event. Also, thank you to the PTO board and chairpersons who planned the event and the numerous volunteers who prepared the classroom baskets, helped with setup/cleanup, refreshments and ticket sales! The event was a huge success and Round School Family raised over $10,000 for our students.

It was a great night for Round Elementary. We wish everyone a happy spring!

What's New at Village?

Students have been busy learning and growing this spring as we continue to catch the 'Reading Bug' at Village Elementary! Additionally, our students and staff have enjoyed several great assemblies in the past month sponsored by our Village PTO, including our annual Literacy Night featuring three guest readers (pictured below). Thank you to our local law enforcement, O'Hana Karate and our State representative Hank Vaupel for being such a positive influence on our students' lives! We enjoy partnering with our community to provide an engaging learning environment for our students and to help instill in them a sense of belonging and service for their community. Last month we participated in our "Go For The Gold" fundraiser for Mott Children's Hospital with our 'Hero Day' on April 24 raising thousands of dollars for a fantastic cause!

Thank you Officer Campbell for reading to us at our Literacy Night and for showing us all of your tactical gear, it was really surprising to feel how heavy your helmet is and all of the tools you use to keep us safe!

Thank you Officer Trammel for being a guest reader at our Family Literacy Night, for all of the goodies and for letting us sit in your car and try out all the lights and sirens! Several of us are interested in a career in law enforcement after your visit!

Thank You Representative Hank Vaupel for reading to our first and fourth graders on April 1st, we enjoyed celebrating reading with you!

Our students enjoyed an author assembly. Mr. & Mrs. Brege (author and illustrator) from Monster Myths are local authors from the Brighton area.

Hero Teen Center Face Painting

Many teens volunteered for face painting during Family Fun Night at Creekside Elementary School. Sarah Corder said, "It was really fun! There were a lot of kids and it challenged me by trying new things." Many children transformed into super heroes with the help of Sarah's face painting talents. All the teens did a great job creating fun designs on the many little faces at Creekside Family Fun Night.

Essential Instructional Practices in Early Literacy

Here, at Hartland Preschool, we have adopted the ten recommended instructional practices as developed by the Early Literacy Task Force. Each month we will be exploring the practices that we perform in our classrooms. These important tips not only demonstrate what we practice in the preschool classrooms but are also important to nurture a well-rounded child as they enter elementary school and beyond.

The Instructional practices were developed by the Michigan Association of Intermediate School Administrators General Education Leadership Network (GELN) Early Literacy Task Force (2016). Essential instructional practices in early literacy: Prekindergarten, Lansing, MI: Authors.

Tracie Waldron will highlight the seventh Instructional Practice of the GELN—“extended conversation.”

“Extended conversation” is key in language development. The use of conversation is extensively used in our preschool classrooms daily. Children are warmly greeted by name upon arrival. Teachers ask children about their morning, weekend, or something special that may be going on in their lives. Teachers create intentional opportunities for peer interaction. Teachers model how to ask peers for materials, “Ask Jane, ‘Can you please hand me the red paint?’” Children are encouraged to communicate with peers while working, playing and enjoying their meal. Children are asked open-ended questions to increase vocabulary. One way we encourage children to elaborate on a topic is by using the phrases: “I wonder what would happen next?” or “Tell me more about...” or “What do you think...?”

Conversation with children acknowledges and shows respect to them. Listening to children shows we value their thoughts and ideas, and fosters positive self- concept. These life-long skills are the foundation for success.

What kind of loser is your child?

I received this email from a local teacher:

Sensei, I have a question. What suggestions do you have to help students cope with disappointment? We have a big contest coming up. Only 2 fourth graders will win. I'd like to be prepared with strategies to help those that don't win.

Here was my response back to her:

Great question. This can actually tie in nicely to the development of your student's "Discipline Muscle" and the "Three Types of People" lesson I did for you and your students.

Here is how to apply it. Remember the Type Two people? They are the majority of people (50-85%) who "do just enough to get by." This is the "rat race" where everybody is competing against each other for the same teams, colleges, jobs, friends, etc. People who are type two people live a life and in a world of scarcity. They believe there is not enough to go around so "I better get mine first." They compete against each other. They have to cut each other down to survive, let alone excel. People in this group can't help but develop a "Fixed Mindset". (They also often have a perfectionist mindset too). They believe people that succeed must have cheated or taken a short cut. It just is not fair! They believe people that succeed must have brains and talents they do not. Their response to failure and setbacks is to give up and quit.

Help your students understand they can choose to be Type Two or Type One people. It is a CHOICE. You can choose the I-always-do-a-little-bit-more-than-anyone-expects habit and mindset of Type One people. Here only about 7% of the population lives. They do not need to compete here. They actually help each other at this level. They know that there is more than enough to go around. They believe it is not a zero-sum game. They know they can make plenty more and the supply of success is unlimited.

They have a growth mindset and an abundance mindset. When one person in this group rises, they all rise. There is plenty for everyone. "There is no competition at the top!"

Here is how you can nicely tie all this into your classroom and with your students. Tell them they can use this contest to not only notice, but also practice being a Type One person.

Just start by helping them notice: Type One people do something very different when they compete—They look and act exactly the same whether they win or lose!

When they compete, you cannot tell if they won or lost by looking at them! Instead, without boasting or celebrating, the Type One winner looks the loser in the eye and says "Okay, good on you. I won this time but keep pushing me. I am going to work even harder because I know that if I even blink you will beat me next time. You better give me your best because YOU make me better!" And even better, the Type One loser, without getting upset or disappointed in losing, will look the winner in the eye and say "Nice job dude. You got me this time but you better watch out. I just learned far more from that loss than you will ever learn from your win. Thanks for teaching me. You stay sharp because the next time I will beat you. I am hungry. I can out work you. Don't celebrate and get comfortable now. Thank you for making me better. Keep pushing me. Bring it on!"

They both win! This is why when we do in-house karate tournaments at our dojo we only give out one medal for the winner because the rest are losers! And that is good!

I think you should have only one winner! ;-)

Yours for stronger kids,
Sensei

Flash From the Friends of Cromaine Library

It's a "Wonderful World" we live in, and having a book in one's hand makes life even more special. Many of the folks that attended our spring book sale and bought special books can attest to this.

A big thank you to the many folks that volunteered to help make our spring sale a success, and of course a million thanks to all of you who purchased books. We hope you enjoy them. (Don't forget, you can always donate books back to our library, for another sale.) Also, the Friends have been very pleased at the wonderful response we have received from our sponsorship of the Great Foodini.

Hartland SOUP

Hartland SOUP would not exist without volunteers and community partnerships. The April 11th SOUP was no exception! We want to personally thank Dunham Hills Golf Club and Lee Kempisty, Director of Food, Beverage & Events, for hosting SOUP! Dunham Hills not only hosted, they provided all of the delicious food and a beautiful setting, too! The micro-funded grant of $800 went to Mr. Anthony Howerton, Principal of Lakes Elementary School, for Lakes Literacy Night. Funds collected—$400 at the door and a matching $400 by an anonymous donor—will be used to purchase books for summer reading. At-risk readers will each receive a bag of 10 books for the summer to help prevent “summer slide.”

Mark your calendars now for the next Hartland SOUP Thursday, July 11, 2019 at 6:30 pm at Settlers Park Pavilion. Submit a proposal at <http://bit.ly/ProposalJulySOUP2019>, or RSVP to attend at <http://bit.ly/JulySOUP2019>. Keep sharing, keep talking, and keep encouraging entrepreneurs, scouts, community organizations, or anyone interested to become involved. Email SOUP at hartlandsoup@gmail.com with questions or to volunteer!
