Superintendent's Message

Janet Sifferman, Superintendent

We have had a successful start to the 2014/15 school year. By now our students have settled into their new classes and their school routine has been established.

One of the new features of our school calendar this year is our Early Release Friday schedule. This was established with two goals in mind. One was to lessen the number of interrupted school weeks for our students and the other was to provide consistent professional development opportunities for our teachers. We strive to provide the best, up-to-date, research-based curriculum and instruction for our students. Early Release Fridays give our staff an opportunity, on a weekly basis, to receive training and to review student data to ensure the success of our students at Hartland Consolidated Schools.

Please visit our web site to see the professional development opportunities being provided. You will find this information under the "Curriculum Department" tab.

Our mission is to ensure the academic success of our students. This consistent time for our teachers to meet, discuss, and train will help us with this mission.

Person of the Month

Ethan Hawker

I'm proud to say I attended Hartland K-12 – Lakes (Dr. Behrman), Farms (Mr. Caroselli), and the old Hartland High School on M-59 (Mr. Wojcik and Mr. Stephens). I graduated from HHS in 1990 and went to University of Michigan and graduated in 1995 with a degree in Mathematics and a teaching certificate. Later, I received my Masters in Education from Michigan State University in 2008.

This is my 19th year at Hartland High School. I've taught a number of math courses over the years including: Pre-Algebra, Algebra, Core Plus 1 - 4, Algebra 2, AP Calculus AB, AP Calculus BC, Trig, Stats, and probably a few others.

My wife, Erica, is a veterinarian at Union Lake Veterinary Hospital in Waterford. We met back in grade school but started dating while at U of M together. We live in Cobblestone (8 years) with our 2 awesome kids – Ben is in 6th grade at Farms and Lauren is in 3rd grade at Lakes. Ben loves sports and playing with his buddies. Lauren loves art, gymnastics, and reading. We moved into the district 8 years ago to make sure that our kids went to Hartland and we know it was one of the best decisions we have ever made. I can't say enough about how great all the teachers and administrators have been at Lakes and Farms. My kids love to go to school (usually ☺) and I know it's because of the love and care that they are given each and every day. Thank you!!

MEMORABLE HCS MOMENT

There are so many it's hard to list just one. I have two Hartland lives.... one as a student and another as a teacher so I'm going to pick one from each. As a student I will never forget the connections that I made with a couple of my teachers. Mr. Taylor, my golf coach and math teacher, was like a second father to me. I learned so much from him and I owe a lot to him and what he taught me. Mr. Cooley also made a huge impact on me as well. I never enjoyed writing and I thought I was "bad" at it until he challenged me and taught me how to put together a respectable essay. I wouldn't have made it through U of M without him. I owe an awful lot to both of these guys and to so many other teachers that I had at Hartland High School.

As a teacher I have so many great memories...class sponsor in 2001, 7th place finish at States with my golf team in 2001, emails from former students saying "Thank You", the list goes on. I know that this may sound "cheesy" but everyday is truly full of laughs and amazing memories. There's no way I could list them all but I will share one and it actually has nothing to do with teaching....it was an epic game of badminton between me and Mike Joseph (math teacher) against Dave Minsker (principal) and Brian Morrison (HS teacher).

We were having the battle of the century and all I can say is that it ended with people literally crashing into the net, shots getting hit off of backs on the gym floor, and so much laughter that we could barely stand. It was awesome and it makes me realize that I work with some great people and they make me smile every day.

WHY ARE YOU STILL HERE?

I'm still here because it's my home. I love living in the district. I love teaching in the district. The neighbors I live with, the teachers I teach with, the students I teach, and the administrators I work with are all amazing and I honestly can't think of a better place to be in my life. I talk to teachers all over the state and I hear so many complaints about their students and their administrators. I almost feel guilty when I tell them about how it is here in Hartland. I'm lucky to have such a great place to live and work.

Working in public education in Michigan is a tough gig lately, but I'm very proud and confident when I say that we do things right here in Hartland. Despite the legislators and their unfunded mandates. Despite the influx of charter schools that promise a better education without a proven track record. Despite these challenges, and many others, Hartland continues to be successful and puts kids first. We are here to teach every kid that walks through the door. I'm proud to be a part of that.

Did you know BREAKFAST will be served daily at Round, Farms, Hartland High School and Legacy for the 2014-2015 school year!

We would like to thank our parents and students for an outstanding start to the year. It has been a great fall so far and it has been so fun seeing students engaged in learning right from the start. Thank you for being so flexible and accommodating during our Friday Early Release Schedule. look ahead in October shows that the following events are scheduled:

October 2 – Picture Retake Day

October 7 – Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) Mtg – 7:30 a.m.

October 18 – PSAT Assessment

October 28 – Band Concert

October 30 – 11th Grade College Planning Night

As a reminder, we have updated school information available on our website at www.hartlandhighschool.us. Please feel free to contact the main office if you have any questions at (810) 626-2200.

The 2014 marching band, led by new Band Director Mr. Brad Laibly provides outstanding school spirit and musical entertainment during every home halftime football game. Be sure to check them out!

Student Happenings Around Town

Hartland History Club students Dan Gallagher, Logan Kucharek, Ray Kennedy and recent graduate Sean Cushing recently took part in the largest Civil War reenactment in Michigan held annually in Jackson, Michigan.

The boys dressed in period wool uniform, marched and fought as Civil War Soldiers did during the 1860's. Sleep was found in hay upon the ground beneath the canvas of small "dog-tents."

These same students take part in the "Luminary Event" which takes place the night before Memorial Day and they could also be seen marching the streets of Hartland as part of the Hartland Heritage Day events last month.

WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL

We have had a very smooth opening of the 2014-2015 school year. Incoming students quickly learned their way around the building and have become very comfortable. The classes of 2019 and 2020 are off to a great start. Look for a school newsletter to be updated every two weeks with information about clubs and activities, the school calendar and lunch menu, and upcoming events. The newsletter is available on the school website (www.hartlandschools.us) Hard copies are available in the front office.

PARENT CONNECT

Parent Connect allows parents with Internet access to monitor their children's grades. If you had a password assigned last year, it remains the same. Contact Karen Wilson at pc@hartlandschools.us for assistance.

PHONE MESSAGES TO STUDENTS IN SCHOOL

It can be very disruptive to call students out of class to deliver routine messages. Please make every effort to communicate after school plans with students before they begin their school day. If there is a message that we need to pass on, we will deliver those during passing time with students called down to the office instead of interrupting class. We appreciate your help in keeping our school the best learning environment possible.

SAFETY IN THE PARKING LOT

The morning "drop off" time before school and afternoon "pick up" time after school means that students who are being driven to and from school must negotiate a very busy parking lot. PLEASE DRIVE SLOWLY AND CAUTIOUSLY and put the safety of our students ahead

Mr. Taylor starts his 38th year teaching eighth grade English students.

TARDY TO SCHOOL POLICY

Please help your child do his or her best. Attendance is a crucial factor for student academic success.

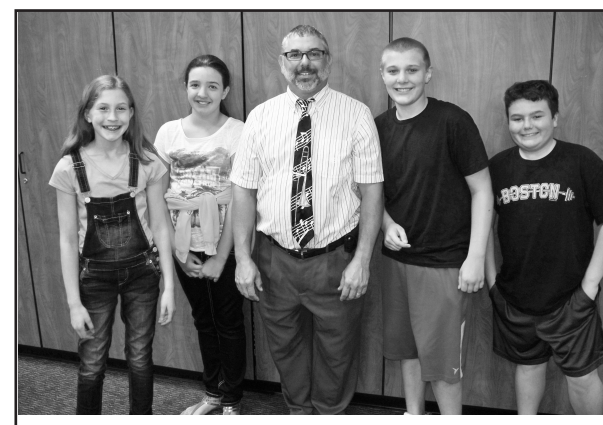

- Students tardy to school (i.e. late to Homeroom) must be signed in at the front office by a parent or legal guardian in order for the tardy to be considered excused.
- Unexcused tardies to school will result in disciplinary action.
- Excessive parent excused tardies may be referred to the Livingston County Attendance Officer.

WELCOME TO NEW FACULTY

We would like to welcome several new faculty members at Hartland Middle School. Ms. Barb Benford is new to HMS after teaching at Round Elementary; she is teaching eighth grade English and seventh grade computers.

Ms. Jennifer Church is shared with Hartland High School teaching Life Skills.

FALL PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES

Parent-Teacher Conferences are scheduled for November 12 and 16 as follows:

- Friday, November 14 from 7:35 am to 10:30 a.m. and from 11:30 a.m. to 2:35 p.m.
- Monday, November 10 from 4 to 7 p.m.

Welcome to LEGACY

The 2014-15 school year began very smoothly for the students and staff at LEGACY HS. Many new faces and some familiar ones too can be seen in the classrooms on both students and staff alike.

Please welcome in Science, Ms. Cari Van Hoorelbeke, who is new to the teaching ranks this year. She comes to Hartland as a graduate-student of Wayne State University and an undergraduate from Lawrence Tech. Her passion and love of science has made her classroom a wonderful place to grow and learn at LEGACY High School.

Welcome Ms. Van Hoorelbeke!

We would also like to welcome all of the many guest-students from the surrounding communities via school of choice that have chosen Hartland as a destination place for their education. With over 40 students choosing to drive to Hartland to attend LEGACY HS, the daily population can be quite diverse.

The staff at LEGACY HS does a fabulous job of helping students feel right at home by connecting the learning and the students with a common bond. We know and brain research supports that student engagement increases when the learner feels a connection to the educational process.

With many exciting educational activities planned for the coming year, we would like to thank everyone for their continued support and wish you each a fabulous school year.

Troop 381 Honors Eagle Scout Brent Nakkula

On Friday, May 9, Troop 381 celebrated the achievement of our newest Eagle Scout Brent Matthew Marr Nakkula at an Eagle Court of Honor held at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Deerfield Township.

The Howell Area Historical Society was the beneficiary of Brent's Eagle Scout Service Project. He managed the design, construction and installation of gated steps to provide access to the caboose at the Howell Depot which serves as a museum. Thanks to Brent's efforts, visitors can now safely gain access to this piece of local history.

Joined by county dignitaries, fellow Scouts and Troop leaders, his friends and family, Brent was presented with his Eagle Scout rank, the highest level of recognition a Scout can earn in Boy Scouting. Scoutmaster Steve Masters delivered the Charge to Eagle and pinned his Eagle rank pin on Brent. Fellow Scouts David Dunville, Andrew Carl, Nik Masters, Zack Mason served as the Honor Guard. Troop Leaders Dave Dunville, John Parzuchowski and Deb Curcuru participated in the ceremony along with Life Scout Salvo Curcuru and fellow Eagle Scout David Parzuchowski. Brent's mom, Barb Nakkula, delivered The Legend of Eagle Mountain as a tribute to her son and all of the hiking they have done together throughout his lifetime. Brent addressed those gathered to offer words of thanks to the many individuals that helped him along his journey, including Jim Bauer, his Eagle Mentor, and former Scoutmaster Ron Trosin II, both of whom were unable to join us for the ceremony. Livingston County Commissioner Dave Domas and Lieutenant James Lynch from the Livingston County Sheriff's Department presented Brent with plaques for his service to the community.

Letters of Commendation from former President George W. Bush, Governor Rick Snyder, Senator Debbie Stabenow, Michigan Representatives Cindy Denby, Joe Hune and Bill Rogers and the Howell Area Historical Society were displayed along with memorabilia from Brent's Scouting career at the reception. Boy Scout Troop 381 is proud to celebrate the service and achievement of Eagle Scout Brent Nakkula.

Safer Roads initiative on the November ballot: What you need to know

The Hartland Township Board of Trustees approved ballot language that will ask Hartland residents if they want a local solution to some of our most pressing road issues. The ten-year, 1.5 mil funding source would improve and maintain primary roads within the Township, particularly those that provide alternatives to M-59 and Old US 23. Here are other key aspects of the plan:

- Millage dollars will be managed by the Township, not the Road Commission.
- Should voters approve the millage, the Township would then have the funding in place to pursue state and federal grants that require matching dollars.
- The millage would cost the average Hartland Township homeowner $150 per year.
- Funding discussions in Lansing may help with M-59 and US 23, but will not affect our local roads.

Visit HartlandRoads.com to view the full Safer Roads plan. If you have any questions regarding the plan, please contact the Township at Roads@HartlandTwp.com or call 810-632-7498.

12 Reasons Not to Give Property to Your Kids Now

When asked about planning for future long term care costs or nursing home costs, some people say "I'm not worried. I'll just give it all to my kids before I need care." That sounds easy, but will it work? Read on for twelve reasons not to give all your property to your kids now.

Reason #1: You can't spend any of the money. What if you need or want some of the money later? Once you give it to the kids, you are not entitled to even the income from it. Not the interest, not the farm income, not the dividends, not the property rents--nothing. If you want money you have to ask your kids.

Reason #2: You can't sell the assets. Let's say you put your home in your kids' names. Then, a few years later, you decide you would like to downsize or move to a warmer state. Can you sell it? Not without getting your kids' permission and signatures. You may think of it as your home, but legally it is not yours any longer.

Reason #3: You can't make decisions about how or where to invest. Do you enjoy managing your investments or savings so you get the best interest rate or the best return on your money? Or maybe you have some farmland and enjoy making decisions about the farm. Well, once you give the property to your kids, you don't have the power to manage the property. Legally, your kids will manage it for you. You can make suggestions about how they should handle it, but they do not have to follow what you say.

Reason #4: You can't give money to grandchildren, charities, or others. You worked hard all those years, saved, invested wisely, and now you would like to give some of your money away. Maybe to help a grandchild with college--maybe to buy a car for another grandchild--maybe to pledge to your church's building fund. Whatever it is, guess what? If you gave your assets to your kids, you do not have the power to give it to anyone or spend it on anyone. You have to ask your kids if they will do it for you. If they still have the money (and they have not spent it yet), then they can decide whether they want to do that. Legally, it's their property now and their decision.

Reason #5: The kids might spend it. Maybe you gave the kids money and expected them to keep the money in the bank, "in case I need it." Well, once you give it to the kids, it's their money, not yours. Legally, they can spend it all, every last dime. And there's nothing you can do legally to stop them.

Reason #6: The kids' creditors can come after it. Are your kids wise with money? Do they ever get in over their head, or could they? Once you give property or money to your kids, it's theirs, which means that a creditor can also come after them. If they later have financial problems, the money you gave them could end up going straight to the creditors to pay off their debts.

Reason #7: Your money may go to your ex-daughter in law in a divorce. Suppose you give money to your son. He takes the check to the bank and puts it in the joint account he has with the wife. A couple of years pass and one day his wife comes home and tells him "I want a divorce. I don't want to be married anymore." As they go to court, the property you gave your son may be part of the divorce battle. Under Michigan law, when gifts or inheritances are co-mingled with the spouse's funds, the judge presumes your son intended to give his ex-wife half of those assets.

So, it will be a battle in divorce court. That is, unless the daughter in law spent all the money before the divorce.

Reason #8: Your child may pay a higher income tax bill. Do the assets that you want to give your child generate income? Maybe interest, dividends, capital gains, rents, farm revenue? Someone has to pay the income tax on those earnings. Once you give the assets to your child, then the child will be the one getting the income tax bill in the future. This may be a big shock to the child. Not to mention the fact that the child may pay higher taxes than you did as a retiree on a fixed income.

Reason #9: If your child dies, he property goes where they want. Okay, let's say you decided to give all of your assets to your kids. What if one of the kids dies before you do? Where do the assets go? They go according to your child's estate plan (Will, Trust, etc.) The child may leave it to his or her spouse or kids or even someone totally outside the family. Is that what you would want? Well, it doesn't matter what you want since those are no longer your assets. They belong to your child and your child can do with them what he wants.

Reason #10: Property taxes on your home will go up. For many families, the equity in their home is a large part of their wealth. So, what happens if you give your home to your kids yet you plan to continue to live there? By transferring the home to your children, you may end up with a much larger real estate tax bill. Why? You no longer own the home so you no longer get a homestead exemption. Plus, you might not receive other property tax exemptions, like those going to disabled veterans or disabled persons.

Reason #11: Capital gains tax goes up. Have any of your assets increased in value? Such as your home, farmland, stocks, rental houses, or other property? If you sold the asset now, you might owe capital gains tax at a 15-20% tax rate. However, if you keep those assets until your death, then the capital gains tax is wiped out through what the IRS calls a "step up in basis." This means that the value of the asset at the date of your death becomes the new value for determining if there was any gain to be taxed later. Now what if you give the assets to your kids while you are alive? By doing that you missed out on the tax benefit at death and, instead, they get the tax bill to be paid later when they sell the property.

Reason #12: You do not have a crystal ball. Do you know when you will need care in a nursing home? If you do, then you have a lot of planning options available. But most people don't know when they might need care. And if you don't know when you'll need care, how do you know when to give your assets to your kids? If you give your assets to your kids and then need care within 5 years of the gift, you may have no way to pay for any care--no Medicaid because of the improper gift, and no assets in your name because you gave them all away.

Bottom line, you don't want to give the assets away too soon or too late. If you give the money too soon, you may want or need it later. If you give your money away too late, you may be left without any care or resources at all. Good planning with an experienced elder law attorney will help balance between having enough to spend on yourselves will still protecting as much of the family savings as possible.

Rockin' Readers at Lakes Elementary

During the 2013-14 school year, Lakes Elementary was again fortunate to participate in the Big Brothers Big Sisters sponsored program called Rockin' Readers. Twelve elementary students who were struggling readers partnered up with Hartland High School students to read together for 30 minutes once a week.

Along with building positive relationships between our young students and their high school buddies, this reading practice opportunity, as well as other instructional programs and interventions at Lakes, resulted in some important gains in reading for our at-risk readers including:

- All four first graders were at or above grade level in June on the DRA (Development Reading Assessment), with good comprehension scores.
- Three out of four second graders were also at or above grade level in June with good comprehension scores on the DRA. The one student that fell below grade level did make significant growth and gained in confidence as well.
- With our 4 kindergarten students, three out of four made significant growth in upper and lower case letter identification and letter sounds, as well as their reading levels on the DRA by the end of the school year.

Staff at Lakes feel strongly that the Rockin' Reader program was extremely helpful in providing another important opportunity for our students to practice their reading skills with a special person, to gain confidence in their abilities, and to improve as readers.

Hartland Heritage Day 2014 is Now History

Volunteers, many in period dress, presented opportunities for attendees to learn about "Hartland's Heritage." Events included a quilt/fiber display at Hartland Methodist Church, petting zoo, cemetery tours, tractor tours of the village, used book sale at Cromaine Library, Howell Nature Center exhibit, special music at the Music Hall, old tractor display, Civil War reenactors and model barn construction. Thanks to all supporters for making the annual Heritage Day a success.

Hartland Area Community Council is a group of citizens working together to promote Hartland and support events such as Memorial Day activities and Heritage Day. Community Council is looking for citizens interested in serving and improving our community. The monthly meetings and projects are an excellent opportunity to get to know people, serve the community, and have your expertise recognized. Several local organizations participate in and support Community Council, is your organization represented?

See our website at www.hartlandcommunitycouncil.org and join us for meetings on October 6, November 3 and December 1, 2014 at Ore Creek Middle School; meetings begin at 6:30 PM and usually end after one hour. Please contact Dick Krueger at 248-887-1283 for further details about Community Council and its activities.

Black Sheep Weavers Fiber Guild “Dyeing Wool Techniques”

Our October 2nd program will feature Guild member Suzanne Sandvik who will lecture and demonstrate several of the ways you can dye wool in your own kitchen. Suzanne is a fantastic rug hooker and has been dyeing fabulous colors of wool for her own designs as well as for her students. Suzanne is also an instructor of rug hooking through Hartland Community Education where she has been teaching for the past 6 years.

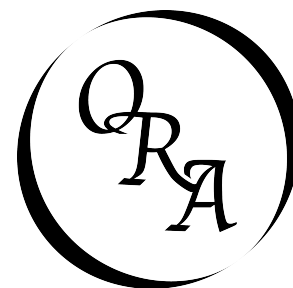

At the end of her program all current paid members of the Guild will receive a piece of wool to try dyeing later at home. This is the first of a series of programs designed this year to build on fiber techniques and the wool will be the base fabric.

We are currently accepting dues ($25) for new members. Members who are renewing and planning on selling at the December Holiday Sale must have their dues paid at this October meeting to be eligible to sell their work.

Our meetings begin with social time at 6:30 pm, followed by a brief business meeting, our featured program and then Show n Tell. We meet in Room 3 located in the Hartland Educational Support Service Center (former high school on M-59). Follow our posted signs.

FUNNY THINGS KIDS SAY AT SAFE TOWN

Gross Hearts, Dog Poop & Broken Bottles

By Jan Doke

The 2014 summer Safe Town program went very well with more than one hundred kids learning about all kinds of safety. We enjoyed visits from our home town heroes from the Hartland Fire Dept., Livingston County Ambulance and Mike from the police department. The kids look up to these men and women and like them right away and our visitors are always awesome with our kids, especially the shy ones.

We also have Hartland bus drivers, Patty with dog safety, Nurse Nancy, Red Cross on water and electrically safety, DTE brings Louie the Lightning Bug, Jack from GM on seat belt safety, 911 and much more.

Many of these volunteers have been coming to see our kids for many years. Dawn Lubeski and I have been really lucky they keep coming back year after year. A big thank you to all of you.

This year, Dawn and I wanted to share a few funny things the kids have said. Obviously, it's funnier at the time it was said, but try to put yourself in our classroom and picture the kids saying these things. That's why kids are so great, they come up with the funniest things at the weirdest times.

First funny thing was when the ambulance was here. They used a 5 year old volunteer to sit on the stretcher and the paramedic was going to put the heart monitor on this child. He was not worried at all. When she asked the kids if they wanted to see the heart on the monitor, this child spoke up and said that his heart was gross looking. He thought she was really going to show the kids his heart and not just it beating on the monitor.

The second funny thing was when Paul from the Red Cross came to visit. Talking to the children, Paul asked, "when you go outside, what is always out there?" Looking for the word sun, Paul was going to talk about the importance of wearing sun screen. One child spoke up, however, and said dog poop. We all were stunned and turned our backs trying not to laugh. I guess he had been helping his parents in the yard lately.

The third funny thing from the Red Cross section was when we were talking about water safety. Water safety rules include no glass bottles at the pool. Well, Paul asked the kids about the broken bottle in the water. One child said that it had to be a beer bottle. Kids say the best things.

When we went on the bus ride, one child wanted to go to the dairy queen, we all wanted to do that, but we didn't get to, bummer. DTE brought Louie the Lightning Bug and the presenter talked about not touching a down power line. One child said don't pee on the line either. We all agreed with that one too.

We did learn a lot in Safe Town this summer too. Dawn and I work with kids every day, they really know how to brighten your day, especially when they say funny things.

"It's A Wonderful Life" Coming Soon to Hartland

The Hartland Players' Main Stage Theater will hold open auditions for It's a Wonderful Life - A Live Radio Play on October 6 and 7 at 7 pm at the Hartland Music Hall, 3619 Hartland Rd.

Inspired by Frank Capra's cinematic classic, this beloved holiday treat brings the spirit of the season to life right before your eyes. Performed as a 1940s live radio broadcast in front of a "studio" audience, the actors will play the dozens of characters in Bedford Falls as well as produce all the sound effects.

A nostalgic blend of holiday cheer and theatrical magic, you will fall in love all over again with George Bailey and the angel named Clarence who saves his life on Christmas Eve.

Whether you are an experienced actor or new to the stage this is a great opportunity for you. There will be little memorization needed for this show and we will be focusing on characterization. There will be a copy of the script at both branches of the Cromaine Library. Please come prepared to read from the script and preform many characters voices.

Show dates are November 28, 29 and December 6, 7, 2014. Our show will be directed by Jenifer Thomas and produced by Connie Lee. Please direct any questions to Connie Lee 810-513-8445.

Hartland Boy Bags First Buck Thanks to Foundation of Hope

Thanks to the efforts of Craig Mortz, who serves on the board of directors for the Foundation For Hope, Hartland teacher and coach Rob Jellison has been given the opportunity to help out kids and young adults who have life-threatening or life-altering conditions and are between the ages of 10 and 25.

The Foundation of Hope provides outdoor adventures to special individuals who may not otherwise have the chance to experience them due to their limiting circumstances.

Jellison, a science teacher at Ore Creek Middle School, also runs the Hartland Archery program for the district, and has been providing these Foundation of Hope individuals the opportunity to shoot some of the Hartland Archery equipment and games over the past few years.

Campers who are chosen for this outdoor adventure are given many outdoor opportunities such as archery, shotgun sports, nature walks, rides on 4-wheelers or hay wagons, fishing and campfires – all while building lifelong friendships.

In Hartland, Jellison was introduced to Robbie Perry, a young boy who suffers from Cerebral Palsy. This past September, Robbie started his outdoor adventure with his main goal being getting his first "monster buck."

The night of the big hunt was filled with laughter, nerves and joy as Robbie independently sighted his own rifle, remembered to breathe and during those heart-pounding moments, listened to the words of encouragement and support, and took his shot— successfully.

It was a proud moment for Robbie, surrounded by his teacher and mentors, who all high-fived their young student followed by fist pumps and hugs. Following such an exhilarating moment, Robbie was then able to spend the weekend fishing, shooting and mainly just hanging out with new friends.

The purpose of sharing Robbie's experience is to not only share his personal story, but also to spread the word about the Foundation For Hope and their Outdoor Adventures. A young boy named Dakota said it best this year at camp during his last night.

"As soon as I drove into the gate of the ranch I felt normal," he said. "It was as if I fit in and everyone treated me like all other kids. No one stared, no one judged, they only gave me friendship...and this to me is the best gift to receive."

If you or anyone you know would enjoy this type of camp, but never thought they could do it due to a life-threatening or life-altering condition, please contact Rob Jellison for an application. The Foundation For Hope is always looking for boys and girls and they are eager to help these Individuals find joy in the great outdoors!

For more information, contact Rob Jellison at robertjellison@hartlandschools.us or call 810-626-2435.

Farms Girl Scouts Earn Bronze Award for Sunshine Committee

The 6th grade Girl Scout Junior Troop 40578 from Farms Intermediate School earned the Bronze Award in September.

The 15 scouts completed the Agent of Change Junior book, came up with a friendship project, and put it in motion forming the Sunshine Committee.

The committee's goal was to help new students to the school feel welcome. The girls were guides for the new student visits and hostesses during the student walk thru sharing a welcome letter and maps. Some other highlights included getting to help the new students, making friendship posters, locker magnets for each student, and troop t-shirts. The girls also decorated the new to district students' lockers.

They completed 20 hours of service work over the last year to earn this special award. The troop wants to share a special thank you to Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. Day, and the Boy Scouts from Troop 380 for their support.

The girls are led by Carrie Fletcher, Kay Simmons and Stephanie Darish.
