SUPT. REPORT

Mr. Hughes introduced Principal Mary Day of Village Elementary, who along with teachers Diane Corcoran, Brittany Benedict, Sheryl Cabaj, and Marybeth Morrison, presented information regarding Village Elementary's Reading Recovery program.

HAPPENINGS – VILLAGE ELEM.

Superintendent Hughes began the Board Appreciation segment of the meeting by thanking the Board for allowing him to serve the district. His appreciation of the Board is not confined to one month, but all the time. He then introduced representatives from the district buildings and programs:

BOARD APPRECIATION

The four elementary buildings, Farms Intermediate and Legacy High School came together and honored the Board with gift bags. Lawrence Pumford spoke on their behalf, quoting Mohammed Ali, "Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on earth", noting that the Board must have a really great room. Legacy Principal Bill Cain also thanked the Board for their support of the Legacy program, noting it was the only program of its kind left in the county.

Hartland Middle School – Principal Livingway presented the board with "1 million dollars each" in the form of 10, $100 Grand candy bars in buckets made by the EBCE program. He also presented them with a book of poetry written by 7th grade students and student Maggie Kennedy read her poem to the Board.

Community Education – Director Michelle Otis presented each Board member with a Code Word game and played a round with the Board and audience.

Hartland High School – The high school drum line performed for the Board, and the high school administration provided the Board with a gift bag that included all they would need to come to a football game in the fall and enjoy the drumline in action.

The Board also received treats and recognition from the Student Nutrition department and Hartland Senior Center.

Mr. Kaszyca, Ms. Hemeyer, Ms. Kenrick, and Mr. Costa thanked everyone for the wonderful gifts, noting it was an honor to serve on Hartland's Board and they were extremely thankful for the support of the administration, staff and community. Mr. Dumond thanked the administration for all that they do and congratulated David Minsker, Kate Gregory, and Jason Reck on their new positions for the new school year.
