A CHRISTMAS STORY

by Mr. Cain

T'was the night before Christmas and I was riding my bike, I got a flat tire 'cause I ran over Spike. I fell to the road and bounced without harm, Spike was well as she danced on my arm. We entered the Village only to see the teachers were there still working with glee. Ms. Rachael ran to see what was the matter, my tire continued to get flatter. Ms. Gayle was checking attendance with care, realizing immediately that students were not supposed to be there. Mrs. Buback was pacing outside, as she realized the teachers were still inside. She had gifts for teachers to deliver, and the cold north wind was making her shiver. Mr. Don and Ryan had the Village school shining as if it were their house—much too clean for any mouse. All of the sudden what did I see, Santa in his sleigh flying over me. I looked up full of wonder, it had to be Santa because it was too cold for thunder. He took great delight when filling the Village children's stocking up high, there is no one more proud of these children than I. Over the PA I yelled with a shout, "You Village staff go home, It's Christmas Eve, Get out!" They scoffed at first but finally said, "Alright, Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night."

Art to Remember

Due to a problem at the factory, some Art to Remember orders may not be in before Christmas. We are so sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Thank you to all the families who helped our Village families this holiday season and thank you Deneweth's Garden Center for your contribution.

We are so blessed to be in such a caring, giving community. This year, we were able to fulfill the Christmas wishes of 19 children here at Village.
