Superintendent's Corner

Chuck Hughes, Superintendent

 @hartlandschools

Sometimes people ask me "when is the busiest time of year for a Superintendent?" I usually respond from January through September. The district begins planning for the next school year in January and doesn't take time to slow down a little until around October or November. This work includes scheduling students, staffing buildings, gearing up for and completing building projects (bond, sinking fund, or capital improvements), ordering supplies and equipment, completing the budget process to close out one year and move into another, etc. All this work is done to ensure that the new year starts with a smooth transition for all involved.

As we move into the new semester, I am asking parents to be cognizant of their children's attendance record. The district is charged with ensuring that students attend school regularly and that we address chronic absence issues. Chronic absence is defined as missing fifteen (15) or more instructional days of school. This issue is important because students who miss this many days of instruction tend to perform at a lower achievement level than students who do not miss school. Parents should be receiving communication from the building administration regarding attendance concerns. In some cases, the district is obligated to report attendance concerns to the county truancy officer. Please help us ensure that your child has the best educational experience possible by attending school regularly.

I wish the best for each of our seniors who are immersed in all the exciting senior activities which will culminate in graduation on June 9th, 2023. Upon graduation, our students will have opportunities to grow beyond their JK-12 experience with the foundation that has been laid during their time with us. I ask that parents keep students focused on the outcome of graduation and remember that guidance is sometimes needed. Together we remain proud and supportive of each Hartland Eagle.

Welcome back to second semester and 2023. There is much to do over the next five months to prepare students for graduation, state assessments and academic growth. We are excited to see our staff continuing to reach all students in every way possible. Intervention programs remain a focus for the students who fell behind during the COVID years. We believe hard work and attention to learning will help every student move forward. We recognize that our staff have raised the bar in all facets of the educational process and thank them for caring for the students of this community. Student growth remains a primary goal of the district.

A Kindergarten Orientation will be held on Saturday, February 18th, 2023 from 10 AM to 11:30 AM at the HESSC, 9525 Highland Road (former high school on M-59). The orientation will provide parents an opportunity to hear from kindergarten teachers and principals about a “typical” school day and the curriculum. The online process allows for the following required documents to be uploaded:

Children are eligible for enrollment in kindergarten in August 2023 if they will have their fifth (5th) birthday on or before September 1st, 2023. A child who turns five after September 1st and before December 1st, 2023 may enroll if parent/legal guardian signs a waiver that is supported by the school district.

A full-day Junior Kindergarten program may be offered. A minimum number of students are required for the program to be made available. ## School Bus Safety

Running Late to the Bus

Should my students cross the road before the bus arrives: All students loading/unloading the bus are required to wait on the same side of the road that they reside on, a minimum of 10 feet off the roadway, and be clearly visible to the bus driver through their front windshield. The bus driver needs to see the student and the student needs to see the bus driver. Students crossing the road must cross in front of the bus and wait for the bus driver to display the safety signal.

What to do if your student misses the bus: Parents should never try to catch up with the bus. Never assume that the bus driver knows that you are following the bus. Your student approaching from the rear of bus puts your student inside the Danger Zone without the driver knowing. You really only have two options at that point: drive your student to school or call transportation to make possible arrangements to take your student to another bus stop. Communication and keeping your student out of the Danger Zone are most important things we can do.

On October 2nd, six members of Hartland Robotics High School FRC team 3536 attended “The Goonettes All Girls Tournament” in Brownstown. The lady eagles took control of the robot and, despite an unprecedented number of mechanical issues, managed to drive the robot into the semifinals. They learned, laughed and smiled through it all. The team is looking forward to the 2023 season kick off on January 7th. If you are a high school student and want to join the team and experience an amazing robotics season email FRC@hartlandrobotics.org for more info!

Spanish classes participated in an alebrije workshop with Carlos Orozco. Students learned how artisans from Oaxaca carve copal wood and use traditional paint designs. Students then created their own artwork with the techniques they learned.

National Honor Society hosted HHS Volleyfest.

Mrs. Dana’s biology students studied the rates of photosynthesis.

The first snowfall of the season helped Chemistry students with their study of thermal energy.

Material Science students studied elastomers by making bouncy balls.

At CTE night, HHS students worked with future HHS students.

The Career and Technical Education (CTE) department at HHS will be hosting an open house on Tuesday, January 10th from 5–7 PM. Instructors, industry professionals and college reps will be available to answer any questions related to the programs and careers. All labs and classrooms will be open to visit and technical equipment will be operating on display. The open house is open to any students, parents, staff members and community members interested in the CTE programs at Hartland. Admission is free and food will be provided. We hope to see you there!

LEGACY

Starting the Holiday Season

A Thanksgiving Feast with Legacy staff and students, Central Office and the Hartland School Board began the holiday season celebrating the Hartland way: relationships, connecting with community and supporting all Eagles.

To build the fabulous event, mentor teachers included student choice in finding a holiday dish to create together, taught recipes, ingredients and methods for cooking, and then as a “mentor group family” made the dish together to bring to the feast.

Next, we invited our Hartland family, decorated, and gave thanks to the wonderful things happening in our lives.

Finally our amazing school board served and shared in our meal.

21st Annual AT&T/MACUL Student Technology Showcase

Erin Dennis, Hartland Virtual Academy Educator, brought a team of students representing the spectrum of our enrollment. On December 7th, they presented to legislators about their virtual learning experiences, showcased the learning projects detailed below and were wonderful representatives of our school.

See Hartland Virtual Academy students display their skills learned in Michigan Virtual online classes. Students are enrolled in various online courses such as Leadership Skills, Foundations of Programming, Business Ethics, and Mathematics of Personal Finance. The digital curriculum features videos, computer animations, chat rooms, digital portfolios and more. Courses are taught by Michigan-certified teachers and supported by an on-site teacher mentor. At Hartland Virtual Academy rigor, opportunity, quality and CONNECTIONS are pillars of the programs. In Hartland, we believe the success of all students begins with relationships and a sense of belonging. Stop by to visit this high quality, digital learning experience.

Student Project: Together, we can do VIRTUALLY anything! Some of our Legacy students even got to meet Lieutenant Governor Gilchrist!

ONE HARTLAND: In Promise and Practice

Ed Gentile used proceeds from his “One Hartland” fundraiser to make these t-shirts for Legacy staff. He was moved by the dedication of the building’s team to the meeting the multitude and magnitude of diverse student needs. The staff unity and student-centered learning, he believes in, is present in all of the educators and mentors at Legacy.

Making Spirits Bright

Legacy continued to collaborate with our building partners to add cheer to the holiday season when we paired with HCS Preschool classes and educator Dawn Lubeski to make gingerbread houses. Legacy students worked with preschoolers in a collaborative holiday effort.

Welcome to Hartland Preschool!

During the preschool years, fine motor skills are strengthened and important to continue to develop on a regular basis. This is why our preschoolers work on various fine motor activities every day. Parents can support this growth through things like tearing paper, gluing, beading strings, using clothespins or tongs to grab small objects and cutting paper.

“Fine Motor” is also this month’s Preschool terminology phrase. This refers to the muscles in our hands and fingers. Our fine motor muscles determine our strength with holding writing utensils and cutting. We work on activities to strengthen these muscles like playing with playdough, using plastic tweezers and tongs, putting together puzzles, lacing, and more.

Hartland Will and Trust Lawyers: Estate Planning Essentials for Young Families in Michigan

Young families are busy! They are often raising young children and at the beginning stages of their careers. Estate planning is often at the bottom of their priority list – if it is even on the list at all! But our Hartland will and trust lawyers would like to help bump that priority up by explaining several reasons why young families need estate planning.

Wisdom Webinar registration: www.wisdomwebinar.com

1. Who will raise your children if you can't?

The odds are in your favor here, but there is a chance that something could happen to you and your spouse. If that happens, who will raise your children? Will anyone step up? Will there be a fight among your families about who raises them? You can avoid all of this trauma for your children by naming a guardian in your will. Remember, assuming guardianship of minor children is a major responsibility. Be sure to ask your preferred guardian if they would be willing to take over the responsibility first.

2. How will your money and property be left to your children?

If you do not have an estate plan in place, upon your death, your children who are under 18 would inherit their share of your estate and it would be held in trust in their name. Your children would then have access to those assets at age 18. Most parents think that leaving money to an 18-year-old would be a bad idea. You can control this by specifying in your will that your child's inheritance should be held in trust for them until age 25, for example. A Special Needs Trust is an equally vital tool if your child has disabilities to ensure the inheritance you are leaving behind for him or her does not prevent them from receiving key public benefits such as Medicaid.

3. What happens to your family if one of you becomes incapacitated?

It's not pleasant to think about, but what happens to your children and your spouse if you become incapacitated? With an estate plan, you and your spouse will create powers of attorney. These documents will allow someone that you name to act on your behalf for medical and financial matters. Usually, people pick their spouse to serve, but you might choose to ask others. Having these documents in place means that bills will continue to be paid and that someone who knows you well can make medical decisions that you would have made on your own if you could.

Parents – take steps to protect your family, even while your kids are young. Once you've done so, you'll experience a sense of peace that you didn't even know you were missing. Take the time to call our Hartland will and trust lawyers today at 844-885-4200 to schedule a consultation.

HACC Thanks You!

The Hartland Area Community Council thanks the Hartland community! We were able to once again place wreaths on veteran gravesites and we couldn't have done it without so many donations and volunteers. Want to get involved with the Council and support the community? The HACC meets again on Monday, January 9 at 6:30 PM in room 33 at the HESSC building (old Hartland HS). January is when we begin planning the Memorial Day Events, including the parade, and many volunteers are needed!

Friends of Cromaine

Happy 2023 from the Friends of Cromaine Library. We hope everyone had a peaceful and happy holiday season. We wish folks the very best in 2023.

We're sending a million thanks to all our patrons who helped make our money-making events successful in the past. We work hard to make the library the very best it can be. We give a resounding thank you to the people who made the November 23rd pie sale successful! To those who baked and those who bought: WE LOVE YOU.

Please mark on your calendar for the January Book Sale! January 25th is set-up at 10 AM—we need you! Sale dates are as follows: Thursday, January 26th from 10 AM to 4 PM.; Friday, January 27th from, 10 AM to 4 PM; Saturday, January 28th from10 AM to-4 PM. (our bag sale day) and on Sunday, January 29th from 12 PM to 1 PM books are free.

We are planning a bake sale, so if you can bake, we need you! Please bring your baked goods to the library around noon on January 25th. If you can volunteer in any capacity, please call the library at 810-632-5200 or contact Mary Lynn at 810-229-7356.
